Game 11

UCLA Head Coach Sharon Backus

On how team played- "I knew we would come out battling. We played intense and very hard but just could'nt come up with the big play."

On the teams emotion- "We tried to take what we could get from them while keeping an even keel and keep on building on that."

UCLA Pitcher DeDe Wyman

On how she pitched- "I felt tired from yesterday's game and I didn't think I threw my best. As the game went on I felt as though I was getting stronger."

UCLA 2B Kelly Howard

On Lisa Fernandez pitching batting practice- "It prepared us better for Arizona's pitching and gave us a real boost before the game."

Arizona Head Coach Mike Candrea

On the game- "It was a very intense game. It usually is against UCLA. UCLA is a very talented team. We've played them five times and there's nothing they don't know about us and vice versa. It could have gone either way easily."

On the upcoming championship game- "We go in tomorrow like every game we play. We're not going to hold up, we're going to spill our guts out. The team is extremely anxious to put their uniforms on tomorrow."

Arizona Pitcher Susie Para

On the game tomorrow- "It's going to take all 14 girls on the team tomorrow to win it."

Arizona 2B Jenny Dalton

On her home run- "I'm one of those hitters that just swings no matter where the ball goes so I don't know whether it was a good pitch or not."
