NATIONAL COLLEGIATE

2004 Championship

Highlights

Gophers' third-period blitz clinches ice hockey honors: Minnesota's Natalie Darwitz registered a hat trick and fellow Golden Gopher Krissy Wendell added a goal and three assists in a 6-2 victory over Harvard in the final game of the 2004 Women's Frozen Four March 28 in Providence. Harvard took an early lead on a goal by Kat Sweet at the 12:48 mark of the first period. Minnesota pulled even at 4:51 of the second period when Darwitz buried the first of her three goals for the game. Harvard retook the lead on a power-play score at 12:21, but the Golden Gophers again knotted the contest on a score by Andrea Nichols at 17:49 of the second period.

In the third period, however, Minnesota unleashed four unanswered goals to put the game out of reach.

Just nine seconds into the period, Darwitz rifled a shot past Crimson netminder Ali Boe, then Darwitz's teammate Kelly Stephens buried her third score of the Women's Frozen Four to put Minnesota up, 4-2.

Then Wendell scored and Darwitz added her final goal to finish off the win for the Golden Gophers.

Minnesota head coach Laura Halldorson said she was proud of her team. "The game felt a little similar to the Dartmouth (semifinal) game. We picked it up, maybe a little earlier today, but we busted loose and thanks to these two (Wendell and Darwitz) we worked for it and wanted it," she said.

But, Darwitz emphasized the win was a total team effort. "Our line did not win this championship. Our team did," she said. "They are not getting the credit they deserve. Our goalie made some great stops and our second and third lines pushed us and worked hard when they were on the ice."

The Gophers shattered a number of records during their tournament run. Wendell established the mark for most points in the Women's Frozen Four with eight, earning four each in the semifinal and championship games. Darwitz's goal at the opening of the third period demolished the record for the fastest goal at the start of a period, set when Minnesota Duluth's Jennifer Botterill scored 21 seconds into the second period of last year's championship contest against Harvard.

Minnesota also bulldozed the record for most goals scored in the championship game with six. The previous record, set by Minnesota Duluth in 2001 and 2003, was four.

In addition, the teams' combined eight goals broke the record for most goals scored by both teams in a Women's Frozen Four championship game. The old mark was established in last year's title game when Minnesota Duluth and Harvard tallied seven goals.

Minnesota, which finished the year at 30-4-2, defeated Dartmouth 5-1 in semifinal action, while Harvard edged St. Lawrence, 2-1. Harvard completed the season with a 30-4-1 record.

Ice Hockey

DIVISION III

2004 Championship

Highlights

Women's skaters complete hockey sweep for Middlebury: Host Middlebury skated past Wisconsin-Stevens Point by a slender 2-1 margin March 20 to win the Division III Women's Ice Hockey Championship.

In a largely defensive effort by both squads, all the scoring took place in the first period. Wisconsin-Stevens Point struck first when Ashley Howe buried a shot off an assist from Jackie Schmitt at the 2:36 mark, but Middlebury knotted the score just less than two minutes later on a goal by team captain Jean Butler with an assist from Emily McNamara.

The third and final score of the game came at 15:32 of the first period when Middlebury's Liz Yale-Loehr rifled home a rebound of a Butler shot.

Though the second and third periods were scoreless, both teams had scoring opportunities. Wisconsin-Stevens Point goaltender Amy Statz turned away 32 shots and Kate Kogut, the netminder for Middlebury, finished with 14 saves on the day.

"After the first period we kept the pressure on, but their goaltender was outstanding," Middlebury head coach Bill Mandigo said. "Wisconsin-Stevens Point is a very disciplined and well-coached team."

Brian Idalski, head coach at Wisconsin-Stevens Point, said he was proud of his team's effort. "They played hard and to the best of their abilities," he said. "Middlebury plays a system we're not used to, but we left it all out on the ice."

Middlebury, which finished the season 24-4-0, downed Plattsburgh State, 2-1, in the semifinals to advance to the championship game. Wisconsin-Stevens Point defeated Manhattanville, 4-1, to earn a berth in the final. The Pointers finished the season 19-7-4.
